

GARAGEEIGHT

BRAND STATEMENT

With greater demand for modern urban living comes the need for development of smart solutions for limited spaces. This movement is exemplified not only in most contemporary architectures but also in all designs at GARAGEEIGHT.

Despite our humble beginnings in a small car garage – hence the brand's name – the designs by GARAGEEIGHT focus on smart solutions for modern urban living, without compromises on personality or quality. Our core values are functional, mobile, practical, flexible, space saving and multipurpose.

The choice of furniture is, as well, a very personal choice. Many of our ideas come from our own daily lives – when we see a problem or potential for improvement, we try to solve it in the most elegant way. The result is that our furniture becomes a more integral design element in spaces and can be spatially tailored to each individual taste.

We keep things simple. What Leonardo da Vinci once said stays firmly in our heart: 'simplicity as a result of a creative process, is the ultimate sophistication.' We believe the desire for simple, functional and multipurpose pieces stays unchanged by time. Bearing this philosophy in mind, we dig into history and heritage, give them a 21st century twist through our use of materials, colour and shape.

We work with trend colours to make sure our products always stand at the front of the trend. However it is never our intention to be trendy.

We are happy to stay modestly up to date.

Create a statement seating. Add these curved, open-back chairs to your room for an undeniably stunning, glam effect. Its sleek, geometric design evokes the originality of the vintage culture.

LJUNGS & DUNDIE

The 1960s was arguably the most stylish decade of the last century. Bearing that in mind, it is hardly surprising that we still see elements of 60s design across creative industries today.

LJUNGS and DUNDIE are two ranges of colourful dining chairs, ideal to bring some fun at the dining table.

The combination of straight and curved lines, with the help of „comfie“ upholstery, makes the chairs not only stylish but also accommodating.

Available in five colours.

Both LJUNGS and DUNDIE are stackable.
